The Noisy Neighbour

My neighbour Tom plays the drums every night. The noise is so loud that the walls shake and my cat hides under the bed. Last week I could not sleep at all, so I felt very tired and irritable at work. Yesterday I knocked on his door and asked him politely to stop after nine o'clock. He was surprised, because he did not know about the problem. Now he practises in the afternoon, and the building is peaceful again.
