

The Lost Wallet

Honesty

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read and guess the new words from the context.

The Lost Wallet

Paul found a wallet on the pavement near the station. Inside were some banknotes, several cards and a photo of a smiling child. He could have kept the money, but his conscience would not let him. Instead, he handed the wallet to a police officer. Two days later the owner phoned to thank him, deeply grateful. She offered him a reward, but Paul refused politely. Knowing she had her wallet back was enough.

- 1 "Conscience" means _____.
a) your inner sense of right and wrong b) a kind of bag c) a bank account
- 2 "Grateful" means _____.
a) thankful b) annoyed c) confused
- 3 "Refused" means _____.
a) said no b) said yes c) forgot

- 1 Paul kept the money. T / F
- 2 He gave the wallet to the police. T / F
- 3 He accepted a reward. T / F

- 1 Where did Paul find the wallet?

The Lost Wallet

Teacher's copy · B1

Choose

1. your inner sense of right and wrong
2. thankful
3. said no

True or False

1. F
2. T
3. F

Questions

1. On the pavement near the station.