

The Mystery at the Museum

Alibis

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read the alibis and answer the questions.

Alibis

A painting disappeared from the museum at 9 p.m. The guard said he was checking the back door. The cleaner insisted she was mopping the floor on the second level. The curator claimed he was giving a talk to a group of tourists, and the receptionist said she was answering an email at her desk. Only one person was telling the truth, because the security camera showed the guard near the painting.

- 1 The curator was giving a talk at 9 p.m. T / F
- 2 The cleaner said she was checking the back door. T / F
- 3 The camera showed the guard near the painting. T / F
- 4 The receptionist was mopping the floor. T / F

- 1 Who do you think was lying? Why?

- 2 What were you doing last night at 9 p.m.? Write an alibi.

The Mystery at the Museum

Teacher's copy · B2

True or False

1. T
2. F
3. T
4. F

Questions

1. The guard, because the camera showed him near the painting.
2. Answers will vary.

Teacher's notes

Role-play follow-up: students interview each other as suspects.