The Mysterious Package

A parcel arrived at Carla's door with no return address and no sender's name. She hesitated before opening it, wary of what it might contain. Inside was a battered notebook, its pages brittle and yellowed with age. The handwriting was faint, but she could make out a list of dates and places. Intrigued, she spent the whole evening trying to decipher the entries. By midnight she had a theory: the notebook belonged to a traveller who had vanished decades ago.
