

Christmas Traditions Around the World

Christmas

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read the text and answer the questions in full sentences.

Christmas customs differ widely from one country to another. In some places, families decorate a tree weeks before the day, while others set up a nativity scene or hang lanterns. Meals vary too: roast meat is common in many homes, whereas some families prefer seafood or a special bread. What most people share is the desire to spend time together and give small gifts.

1 What can families put up before Christmas?

2 How do meals differ?

3 What do most people have in common?

Christmas Traditions Around the World

Teacher's copy · B2

Questions

1. A tree, a nativity scene or lanterns.
2. Some families eat roast meat, others seafood or special bread.
3. They want to spend time together and give gifts.