

Modals in Cultural Etiquette

Etiquette

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read the text and complete the exercises.

Business Etiquette

In many countries, visitors ought to arrive on time for meetings; arriving late may be seen as disrespectful. You needn't bring a gift to a first meeting, though a small token might be appreciated. Business cards should be given and received with both hands in some cultures. You shouldn't start discussing business immediately; you could begin with a little small talk. Above all, one must remain respectful, since a single careless remark can damage a relationship.

- 1 Late arrival might be considered rude. T / F
- 2 A gift is compulsory at a first meeting. T / F
- 3 You could start with small talk. T / F
- 4 Careless remarks can harm relationships. T / F
- 1 In your view, what should visitors always remember?

Modals in Cultural Etiquette

Teacher's copy · C1

True or False

1. T
2. F
3. T
4. T

Questions

1. They should remain respectful and arrive on time.