Statement

I was standing outside the bakery at about half past eight. A young man was running down the street and a woman was shouting behind him. While I was trying to understand what was happening, a cyclist swerved to avoid them and crashed into a bin. Nobody was hurt, but several people were filming the scene on their phones when the police arrived.

1 Where was the witness standing?

2 What was the woman doing?

3 Why did the cyclist swerve?

4 What were several people doing when the police arrived?
