Finishing

1. Stuff the muzzle lightly and sew it to the lower middle of the face, adding a little more stuffing before you close the seam.
2. Embroider a small black triangle nose on top of the muzzle, then a short straight line down from it and a small curved smile.
3. Embroider the eyes with black yarn, about 5 st apart, just above the muzzle. (Optional safety eyes go in before you sew on the muzzle, and are not for toys for children under 3.)
4. Sew the ears to the upper sides of the head, about 6 st apart at the top, pinching each ear flat where it is sewn.
5. Stuff the body firmly and sew its open end to the bottom of the head, so the head sits centered on top.
6. Sew the arms to the sides of the body just below the head.
7. Sew the open ends of the legs to the bottom front of the body so the bear sits with its feet pointing forward.
8. Sew the tail to the middle of the back, low down, and weave in all the ends.

Tips

- Crochet with a hook one size smaller than the yarn label suggests so the stuffing does not show through.

- Stuff a little at a time and push the fiberfill into the arms and legs with the blunt end of your hook.
- Pin every piece in place and sit the bear on a table before you sew, to check that it stays upright.

Sizes are approximate and depend on your yarn and tension. The photo is an illustration of the finished piece. For your personal use.
