Head bandages (make 2, cream)

Worked flat in rows. Do not stuff.

Row 1	ch 29, sc in 2nd ch from hook and in each ch across	(28)
Row 2	ch 1, turn, sc in each st across	(28)
Finish	Fasten off leaving a long tail for sewing.

Finishing

1. Sew the head onto the body, centered on the neck end.
2. Sew one arm to each side of the body just below the head, pointing slightly forward.
3. Head bandages: sew one strip around the head on Rnds 4-5 (the forehead) and the other on Rnds 9-10 (the chin), overlapping the ends by about 1/4 in (6 mm) at the back. Leave Rnds 6-8 uncovered for the eyes.
4. Body bandages: wrap the three strips around the body at a slight slant, one above the other on Rnds 6-12, overlapping the ends at the back, and sew them down along both long edges.
5. Embroider the eyes on Rnd 7, 6 st apart, as two small white ovals 2 st wide, then add a tiny black stitch in the middle of each for the pupil.
6. Weave in all the ends.

Tips

- Bandages look best a little uneven. Slant them and overlap them like real wraps.

- Sew the strips down with cream yarn so the stitches disappear into the bandage.
- For a longer mummy body, add 2 or 3 plain rounds after Rnd 5 and add one more body strip.
