Finishing

1. Stuff the muzzle lightly and sew it to the lower middle of the face.
2. Sew the red nose to the top of the muzzle. (For toys for children under 3, embroider the nose in red yarn instead.)
3. Embroider the eyes with black yarn, about 5 st apart, just above the muzzle. (Optional safety eyes are not for toys for children under 3.)
4. Sew one branch to the side of each antler, about halfway up, angled outward. Sew the antlers to the top of the head, about 5 st apart.
5. Sew the ears to the head just in front of and below the antlers, pinching each one flat.
6. Stuff the body firmly and sew its open end to the bottom of the head.
7. Sew the front legs to the sides of the body and the open ends of the back legs to the bottom front, so the reindeer sits up.
8. Sew the tail to the back. Wrap the scarf around the neck, overlapping the ends in front, and sew it in place all around. Weave in all the ends.

Tips

- Stuff the antlers very lightly so they stay thin and a little bendy.
- Sew the antlers on first, then place the ears in front of them so you know where each goes.
- Try a red and white striped scarf by changing colors every 2 rows.
