Make Every Message Work Better

Your Sales Day Plan: The First Seven Days

Next Step

> Ready-made messages for WhatsApp, Facebook and Instagram. Copy, paste, send. You do not need to be a salesperson. You only need to be yourself, and to tell people about a bag you made with your own hands.

How to Use This Guide

Every message below is written so you can copy it as it is. Where you see a word in square brackets, such as [Name], [Price] or [Bag name], swap it for the real detail before you press send. That is all there is to it: copy, change the brackets, send.

Change a few words so it sounds like you. If you say 'hey' instead of 'hello', say 'hey'. People buy from someone who sounds real, and a message in your own voice always works better than a perfect one that sounds like an ad.

> The three golden rules
>
> First, be kind and brief. Second, ask permission before you send more than one message. Third, accept a 'no' with a smile. A polite 'no' today is often a 'yes' next month.

Good manners and no spam

- Send one message to one person. Do not paste the same text into dozens of chats at once.
- Never add people to a group without asking them first.
- Post in a group only where selling is allowed. Read the group rules before you write.
- If someone does not answer, you may follow up once after a few days. After that, leave it.
- Say clearly what the bag is, what it costs and how long it takes to make. Never promise what you cannot deliver.
- Never write 'last chance' or 'only two left' unless it is exactly true. Honest messages build trust, and trust builds repeat buyers.

> A word about results
>
> These messages are tools, not guarantees. How many bags you sell depends on your time, your community, your prices and your effort. Some people sell their first bag in a day, others in a few weeks. Both are normal.

Part 1: First Messages to Friends and Family

The easiest first buyers are people who already know and like you. Send these one to one, never as a mass message. Choose the one that fits each person best.

1. The simple announcement

Hi [Name]! I wanted you to be the first to know: I have been making little luxury-look bags by hand, stitched hole by hole on plastic canvas. I just finished one called [Bag name] and I am really proud of it. Can I send you a photo? No pressure at all, I would just love your opinion.

2. Asking for honest feedback

Hey [Name], can I ask you a small favor? I made a new handmade bag and I would love your honest opinion on the colors. If you like it, it is $[Price]. If it is not your style, just tell me, I will not be offended!

3. For a close friend

[Name], remember how I said I was learning to make bags? I did it! This is [Bag name], and it took me one afternoon. I thought of you because you love [color or style]. Want to see more photos?

4. For a family member

Hi [Name]! I have started a little handmade bag project at home. I am making each one by hand, one stitch at a time. Would you like to see what I have made so far? If something is right for you or for a gift, I would be happy to make one for you.

5. A gift idea message

Hi [Name]! Do you have a birthday or special day coming up? I make handmade bags that are lovely as gifts, and I can pick the colors to match the person. The [Bag name] is $[Price]. Would you like me to send some photos?

6. Asking friends to share

Hi [Name]! I am starting to sell my handmade bags. Would you be willing to show the photos to a friend who might like them? Only if you feel comfortable, of course. Thank you for always supporting me, it means a lot.

Part 2: WhatsApp for Neighbors and Local Groups

WhatsApp is personal, so keep it warm and short. For group chats, always check that the group allows this kind of message first. When in doubt, ask the group admin before you post.

7. Neighbor, first hello

Hello [Name], this is [Your name] from [street or building]. I make handmade bags at home and I thought you might enjoy seeing them. May I send you a few photos?

8. Neighbor, after a yes

Thank you, [Name]! Here is my [Bag name]. It is stitched by hand, lined with soft felt, and it has a [chain or handle] closure. The price is $[Price], and I can make it in a color of your choice. I am happy to answer any questions.

9. Message for a neighborhood group

Hello everyone! I hope it is fine to share this here. I make handmade bags at home, each one stitched by hand. The [Bag name] is $[Price] and I can arrange pickup nearby. If you would like to see photos, send me a message and I will reply to you privately. Thank you for having me in the group!

10. Moms and school group

Hi mamas! I started a small handmade bag project and I would love to show it to anyone who is interested. They make nice gifts for teachers and grandmas. If you would like to see photos, just reply here or write me privately.

11. Work or church group (only if allowed)

Good morning everyone. With the admin's permission, I wanted to share that I make handmade bags in my spare time. If anyone would like to see them, I would be glad to send photos privately. Thank you for your time!

12. WhatsApp status text

New today: [Bag name], handmade stitch by stitch. $[Price]. Made in about one afternoon, in the colors you choose. Send me a message to see more photos.

Part 3: Facebook Posts

A good Facebook post has a clear photo, a short story, the price and one easy next step. Use bright natural light for the photo, and show the bag from the front and from the side.

Local groups

13. Local group post

Hello neighbors! I make handmade bags, stitched one hole at a time on plastic canvas, with a soft felt lining. This is the [Bag name]. Price: $[Price]. Pickup in [town or area]. I can also make it in other colors. Message me if you would like more photos!

14. Local group, the story post

A few weeks ago I did not know how to make a bag. Today I am proud to share my [Bag name]. It took me one afternoon and every stitch is by hand. If you would like one, it is $[Price]. And if you want to learn too, I am happy to tell you how I started.

Facebook Marketplace

15. Marketplace listing title and description

Title: Handmade luxury-look bag, [Bag name], $[Price]. Description: Handmade by me, stitched by hand on plastic canvas with worsted yarn. Size: about [width] by [height] inches. Lined with felt, with a [chain or handle]. New, never used. Pickup in [area]. Other colors available on request.

16. Marketplace reply to the first message

Hi [Name], thank you for your interest! Yes, the [Bag name] is still available. It is $[Price]. I can meet you in a public place in [area] or arrange pickup. When would be good for you?

Your own profile

17. Profile post, the launch

I have some news to share. I have been making handmade bags, one stitch at a time, and today I would like to show you my first collection. Each bag is $[Price] and made by me at home. If you see one you like, send me a message. If not, I still hope you enjoy the photos!

18. Profile post, behind the scenes

This is what an afternoon looks like for me: a cup of tea, some yarn and a plastic canvas. By evening, a finished bag. This one is the [Bag name]. If you would like one made for you, write to me and I will tell you the price and the wait time.

19. Profile post, a new color

I made the [Bag name] in a new color this week: [color]. It is $[Price]. If you would like it in another color, I can make that too. It takes me about [number] days.

20. Profile post, a thank you

Thank you to everyone who has looked, liked and shared my bags. Your kind words keep me stitching! If you ever want a bag made for you or for a gift, you know where to find me.

Part 4: Instagram

Instagram is visual. Take your photo near a window, with a plain background, and let the bag be the star. Stories are the easiest place to start, because they disappear and feel casual.

21. Story, the first reveal

Story text: Something new I made by hand. Can you guess how long it took? (Add a quick poll: One afternoon / One week.) Next story: Answer: one afternoon! This is the [Bag name], $[Price]. Message me if you like it.

22. Story, price and details

The [Bag name]. Handmade, stitched by hand, lined with felt. About [width] by [height] inches. $[Price]. Send me a message to order, and I will tell you how long it takes.

23. Feed caption

Stitch by stitch, hole by hole. This is the [Bag name], made on plastic canvas with worsted yarn and finished with a [chain or handle]. It took me one afternoon, and I loved every minute. Price: $[Price]. Send me a message if you would like to see more photos or have one made in your color.

24. Caption for a custom order

Made especially for a customer who asked for [color or detail]. If you have a color in mind, tell me and I will make it just for you. Starting at $[Price].

25. First DM to someone who is not a follower

Hi [Name], I saw you like handmade accessories, so I thought I would say hello. I make handmade bags and I wanted to share one with you. If you would like to see it, I am happy to send a photo. If not, no problem at all, and have a lovely day!

26. DM after someone likes a post

Hi [Name], thank you for liking my post! If a particular bag caught your eye, tell me which one and I will send you more photos and the price. No pressure, just glad you stopped by.

Part 5: Answering the Four Questions Everyone Asks

When someone writes back, they are interested. These answers help you reply with confidence and kindness. Reply quickly, and always finish with a question so the chat keeps moving.

How much does it cost?

27. Price, simple

Thank you for asking! The [Bag name] is $[Price]. That includes the lining and the [chain or handle]. Would you like me to send more photos?

28. Price, explaining the value

The [Bag name] is $[Price]. Each bag is stitched entirely by hand, which takes me about [number] hours, and I use quality yarn and hardware. If the price does not fit this time, that is perfectly fine. Thank you for asking!

Can you make it in another color?

29. Color, yes

Yes, of course! I can make the [Bag name] in [color]. The price stays $[Price] and it takes me about [number] days. Would you like me to send a small photo of the yarn color first, so you can be sure?

30. Color, not possible

Thank you for asking! That exact color is hard for me to find right now, so I would rather be honest than promise it. I could do [close color] instead. Would you like to see a photo of that yarn?

Do you ship?

31. Shipping, yes

Yes, I can ship it. The shipping cost to [area] would be about $[Shipping], and I will send you the exact number before you pay. It usually takes me [number] days to pack and send. Would you like me to confirm the details?

32. Shipping, local only

For now I only do local pickup in [area], because I am just starting out. If you are nearby, I would be glad to meet you somewhere convenient. If you are far away, I would love to let you know once I start to ship.

Can I get a discount?

33. Discount, kindly no

Thank you for asking! The price of $[Price] already covers the materials and the hours of handwork, so I cannot lower it on this bag. But I would be happy to help you choose a smaller model that fits your budget. Would you like to see one?

34. Discount, for two bags

If you take two bags, I can offer a small thank-you of $[Discount] off the second one. It is not a sale, just a way to say thanks. Would you like to go ahead?

Part 6: After the Sale

A happy buyer is your best marketing. A short, warm follow-up costs nothing and makes people remember you.

35. Thank you after delivery

Hi [Name], thank you so much for choosing my [Bag name]! I hope you love it as much as I loved making it. If you have any questions about caring for it, just ask me.

36. Checking in after a week

Hi [Name], it has been a week. How is your bag? I would love to know what you think. Your opinion helps me do better every time.

37. Asking for a recommendation

Hi [Name], I am so glad you like your bag! If you have a friend who might enjoy one, would you tell her about me? And if you are happy to write a sentence or two about your experience, I would be very grateful. Only if you want to, of course.

38. Asking for a photo

Hi [Name]! Would you let me share a photo of your bag in use? I would not use your name unless you say it is fine. If you prefer not to, no problem at all.

Part 7: Custom Orders

A custom order is when someone asks for a bag made just for them. It is a wonderful way to earn more, but it needs clear agreements from the start. Always confirm the details in writing.

39. Taking a custom request

I would be happy to make that for you! To be sure it is just right, can you tell me: the color you want, the size you prefer (small, medium or large), and any special detail? Once I know, I will give you the exact price and the time it takes.

40. Confirming the order

Perfect, [Name]. To confirm: one [Bag name] in [color], about [width] by [height] inches, for $[Price]. It will be ready in about [number] days. Please reply 'confirmed' and I will begin.

41. Asking for a deposit

To begin your custom bag, I ask for a deposit of $[Deposit], and the rest of $[Balance] when it is ready. This covers the materials. Does that work for you?

42. Bag is ready

Good news, [Name]! Your bag is finished. I am sending you a photo now. When would be a good day to pick it up or have it delivered? The remaining balance is $[Balance].

Delivery and Payment: Simple Rules

Clear rules protect you and your buyer. Decide them once, write them down, and use the same ones every time.

Meeting in person

- Meet in a public, well-lit place, such as a cafe or a shopping center.
- Tell someone you trust where you are going and at what time.
- Bring the bag in a clean bag or box, so it looks like the gift it is.
- Let the buyer look at it and take their time.

Sending online

- Receive payment before you send anything.
- Use a payment method that gives you a record, such as a payment app or a platform's own checkout.
- Pack the bag in tissue paper and a sturdy envelope or box.
- Send the buyer the tracking number if the carrier gives you one.
- Keep a simple note of every sale: date, bag, price and what you spent.

Be honest about timing

Always give a time you can truly keep, and add a little extra. It is better to deliver early than late. If something changes, tell the buyer right away.

Reminder

This guide is educational. It is not legal or tax advice. Depending on where you live, selling may involve local rules or taxes. Check with a local professional if you have questions.

Make Every Message Work Better

The words matter, but small habits matter just as much. Here are the things that make the biggest difference for beginners.

Photos that sell

- Shoot near a window, never with a flash. Soft daylight shows the colors of the yarn truthfully.
- Use a plain background: a table, a sheet or a wall. Remove clutter.
- Include one photo with the bag held in your hand, so people can see the real size.
- Take a close-up of the stitches. Handwork is your strength, so show it.
- Do not edit the colors heavily. A buyer who receives a different color than the photo will not come back.

When to write

Most people are free in the early evening and on weekend mornings. Send your messages then, and give people a day to answer before you think about a follow-up. Never message very late at night or very early in the morning.

What to say when the answer is no

> 43. Graceful reply to a no
>
> No problem at all, [Name], thank you for taking a look! If you ever want a bag for yourself or as a gift, I will be here. Have a wonderful week!

> 44. Gentle follow-up after silence
>
> Hi [Name], I just wanted to check whether you had a chance to see the photos of the [Bag name]. If it is not for you, that is completely fine. Thank you for your time!

Keep a tiny sales notebook

Write down who you messaged, what you sent, and what they said. After a week you will see which messages work for you. It also stops you from sending the same message to the same person twice, which is the fastest way to feel like spam.

> Honest numbers
>
> Do not compare yourself with anyone else. If you message ten people and two answer, that is a normal and healthy start. What matters is that you keep learning from every conversation and keep your promises to every buyer.

Your Sales Day Plan: The First Seven Days

Small steps are easier than one big push. Use this plan to keep going without feeling overwhelmed. Each day takes about twenty to thirty minutes. Tick off each task as you do it.

DAY 1: TAKE YOUR PHOTOS

- [ ] Choose your best finished bag.
- [ ] Take 3 photos in natural light: front, side and close-up of the stitches.
- [ ] Write the price, size and time it takes on a note.
- [ ] Choose 2 or 3 messages from this guide and save them in your phone.

DAY 2: FRIENDS AND FAMILY

- [ ] Send message 1 or 2 to three friends, one by one.
- [ ] Send message 4 to one family member.
- [ ] Reply kindly to anyone who answers, even if the answer is no.

DAY 3: WHATSAPP

- [ ] Send message 7 to two neighbors.
- [ ] Post your WhatsApp status (message 12).
- [ ] Ask the admin before you share in any group.

DAY 4: FACEBOOK

- [ ] Post message 13 in one local group that allows selling.
- [ ] Create a Marketplace listing (message 15).
- [ ] Share one profile post (message 17 or 18).

DAY 5: INSTAGRAM

- [ ] Post the first reveal story (message 21).
- [ ] Post the feed caption (message 23).
- [ ] Send message 25 to three people who might enjoy your bags.

DAY 6: FOLLOW UP

- [ ] Reply to every message you received.
- [ ] Send a gentle follow-up to anyone who showed interest but did not answer. Only once.
- [ ] Use the price answers (27 to 34) when people ask.

DAY 7: REVIEW AND PLAN

- [ ] Write down how many people you contacted and how many replied.
- [ ] Note which message got the best response.
- [ ] Send a thank-you message (35) to anyone who bought.
- [ ] Plan next week: choose which bag to make next, and begin.

Next Step

Pick three messages from this guide today. Change the brackets, read them out loud once, and send the first one. Then choose the bag you will make next, and keep stitching. Every message you send is practice, and practice is how you become comfortable.
